Notice

All the Current Second Year (2016-17 scheme), Semester III B.E. students of all Engineering branches including those who have kept terms of Semester I & II earlier or taken a drop after keeping terms of semester II or are on block (having more than six backlog papers of Semester I & II) and not kept terms of semester III are hereby informed to register for Semester III (July – Nov 2019), as the syllabus of all B.E. courses is revised from the Academic year 2019-20.

Goa University Ordinance is as follows :

A student who is from the scheme implemented in the year 2016-17 shall be Allowed To Keep Terms (ATKT) at every Semester in such a manner that they shall complete instructions along with students of the last instructional batch, irrespective of number of backlogs and irrespective of any other condition(s) of eligibility for admission to the term/Semester. However, all the requirements relating to the eligibility to appear for examination shall be applicable along with not more than eight papers as backlog from the three immediately preceding Semesters.

A student who has not kept the term/Semester for the Semester-II of Academic Year 2018-19 shall be transferred to Semester-I of the revised scheme RC 2019-20.

A student admitted in the RC 2016-17 scheme who could not keep his/her terms in any of the Semester III to VIII due to various reasons shall require to migrate to the new revised CBCS scheme introduced in the academic year 2019-20. An equivalence committee comprising of the Chairperson and members of Board of Studies in the relevant branch of Engineering shall be established to look into this matter. The recommendation of the equivalence committee shall be final and binding to all stakeholders.

Kindly ensure that the instructions are followed so that in future any problem should not arise.

However, all the ordinances relating to the eligibility to appear for examination shall be applicable.
