WORKSHOP ON ANALYSIS OF PILE DATA & DESIGN OF PILES

The continuing introduction of new, more powerful, and self-erecting machines for installing piled foundations has transformed the economics of this form of construction in ground conditions. Developments in analytical methods of calculating bearing capacity and dynamic methods for load and integrity testing have resulted in greater assurance of sound long-term performance. Further economies in foundation and superstructure design are now possible because of the increased ability to predict movements of piles under load, thus allowing engineers to adopt with confidence the concept of redistribution of load between piles with consequent savings in overall pile lengths and cross-sectional dimensions. This workshop has been arranged to update delegates on pile design, testing and analysis of pile data.

WORKSHOP VENUE & DATE

Association of Consulting Civil Engineers (India) was formed and registered in 1985 by a group of Consulting Civil Engineers in Bangalore. The main object of the association is to encourage and foster the ideals of the profession, to hold conferences/meetings/seminars for dissemination of knowledge amongst the civil engineers in particular and the society at large. ACCE (I) with its headquarters at Bangalore, has since grown into a National Association with centres formed all over India including Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bidar, Chennai, Coimbatore, Davangere, Dharwad, Hyderabad, Indore, Karimnagar, Mangalore, Madurai, Mysore, Nagpur, Nashik, Vishakapatnam. Goa Centre of ACCE (I) was inaugurated in May 2015. Since then ACCE (I) Goa has conducted several technical seminars in Civil Engineering.
